

welcome to

ADELAIDE

south australia

As you explore the city, we encourage you to experience the excellent food and wine culture that South Australia is known for. Below is a curated selection of restaurants, cafes, bars, and regional highlights to enhance your visit.

to eat

Restaurants

Fugazzi (CBD, Leigh Street) – Italian cuisine with a contemporary touch. The Gnocco Fritto with whipped ricotta is a must-try.

Part Time Lover (CBD) – Modern Australian fusion with a changing seasonal menu, a personal favourite.

Shōbōshō (CBD, Leigh Street) – Modern Japanese cuisine with a focus on wood fire and yakitori.

Africola (CBD, East Terrace) – Internationally acclaimed Southern African cuisine with bold flavours.

to eat

BLOOM

Cafes & Casual Dining

Pogo Coffee Roasters (CBD & Kent Town) – Best coffee in Adelaide.

Whistle and Flute (Eastern Suburbs) – Ideal for brunch or lunch.

Lockwood General (Burnside) – A charming spot for brunch or lunch.

Bloom (Thebarton) – Another excellent option for a leisurely brunch or lunch.

Adelaide Central Market (CBD fringe) – A fantastic market experience. Visit Lucia's Fine Foods for excellent paninis.

Bottega Bandito (Prospect) – Italian-Australian fusion offering excellent brunch and lunch options.

to drink

Bars & Wine Experiences

East End Cellars (CBD) – A must-visit for sampling South Australian wines, complemented by cheese and charcuterie platters. A lively atmosphere on weekends.

Peel & Leigh Street

Great options for drinks, including Paloma Bar, Alfred's, and Clever Little Tailor. Best on Friday/Saturday nights.

2KW (CBD) – A rooftop bar offering stunning city views alongside quality dining.

Sol Rooftop Bar (CBD) – Located within SkyCity Casino, near UniSA.

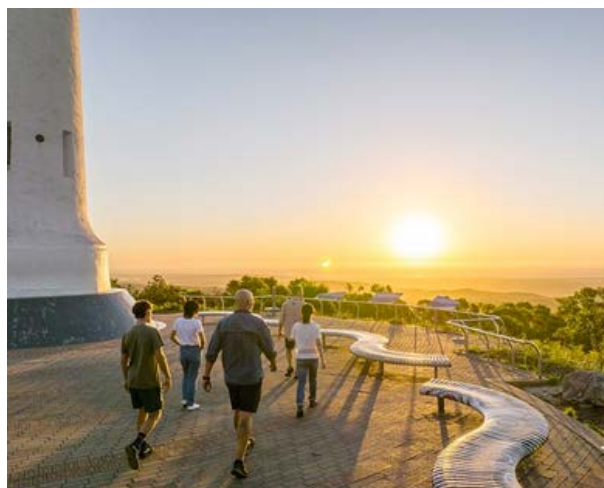

to do

Activities and Attractions

Adelaide Botanic Gardens

– A beautiful and tranquil space to explore.

Hiking Trails – Mount Lofty, Morialta, and the Marino Boardwalk offer stunning scenery.

Beaches – Enjoy the coastline at Glenelg, Somerton Park, or Henley Beach.

National Parks & Wildlife – Visit Cleland National Park, Warrawong, or Gorge Wildlife Park, where you can hold a koala.

wine regions

McLaren Vale

McLaren Vale (Approx. 45 minutes from Adelaide)

Renowned for its bold reds and Mediterranean varietals. A car is recommended, or you can book a tour.

Must-visit wineries: Bekkers, Primo Estate, Samuel's Gorge, Chapel Hill, Alpha Box & Dice, Chalk Hill.

Dining: The Salopian Inn offers an outstanding culinary experience.

Unique experience: Visit the d'Arenberg Cube, an avant-garde cellar door and art gallery.

Coastal stop: Aldinga Beach is worth a visit, especially in warmer weather.

wine regions

Barossa Valley

Barossa Valley (Approx. 60 minutes from Adelaide)

Renowned for its bold reds and Mediterranean varietals. A car is recommended, or you can book a tour.

Famous for full-bodied red wines, particularly Shiraz, with standout Rieslings from the nearby Eden Valley.

Must-visit wineries: Rockford, Penfolds, St Hugo, Seppeltsfield, Chateau Tanunda.

wine regions

Adelaide Hills

Adelaide Hills (Approx. 30 minutes from Adelaide)

The closest wine region to the city, offering a mix of wine and gin experiences.

Must-visit wineries: Shaw and Smith, Goldwing Wines, Longview Vineyard.

Gin distilleries: Ambleside Distillers.

Dining recommendations:

Sidewood Estate, Pike & Joyce, Scenic Hotel, and Crafers Hotel.

Cultural stop: Hahndorf, a picturesque German settlement town.

weekend trips

Port Lincoln – A short 30-minute flight (or 8-hour drive) offering world-class seafood. Experience the Coffin Bay oyster tour or, for the adventurous, shark cage diving.

Yorke Peninsula – Particularly Innes National Park, featuring picturesque beaches and rugged coastal scenery.

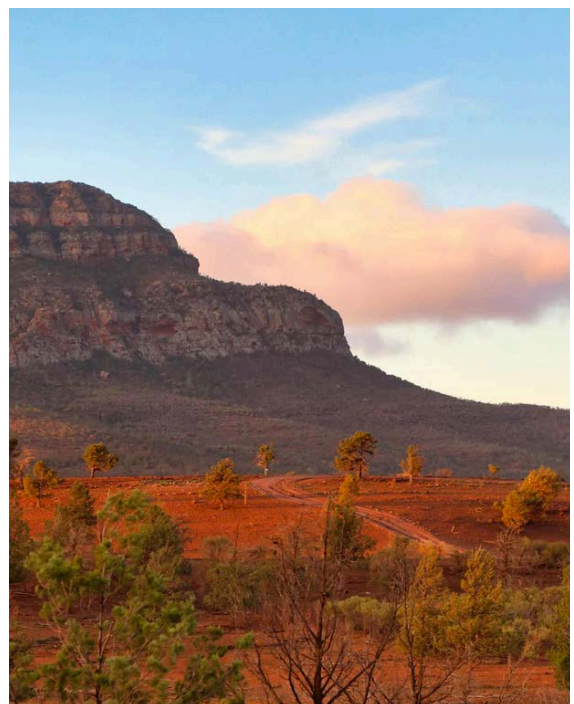

weekend trips

Kangaroo Island – Accessible by ferry from southern South Australia. Known for its wildlife, excellent food, and renowned wineries.

Flinders Ranges – A unique outback experience with Indigenous tourism opportunities and striking landscapes.

Enjoy your time in Adelaide, South Australia!

